

I want to complain about Sinclair Broadcasting and their attempt at trying to fool the public with their fake news documentary about John Kerry. To allow this and not allow broadcasts that would possibly reflect negative on Bush does not seem right. I thought both sides of the race had to have the same amount of time. I hope the FCC investigates into what I consider an illegal practice.